Title: Power in the Passion

Text: 1 Corinthians 1:10-18

Introduction

I. A Call for Unity

No factions but Christ

II. A Proclamation of Good News

No personal work but God's work

III. A Plea for the Passion

Power in the cross of Christ

"But far be it from me to boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world." (Galatians 6:14)

Conclusion

- Why do you think we are prone to make factions and divisions?
- What is the content that Paul calls for unity over? Why can that be a struggle?
- Where is the power of Christian living? What can obscure it?
- Why is the cross folly to those perishing? How is this actually the power of God?
