Title: “But They’re Wrong!”
Text: 1 Corinthians 8

Introduction

When you are strong in the gospel, you are called to relationship with those who are weak—yes, even when they are wrong.

I. Weak or Strong
Which are you?

II. Correct or Accept
Which do we do?

III. Tolerance or Grace
Do you see the difference?

“And if I have prophetic powers, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing.”

(1 Corinthians 13:1)

Conclusion

- Does it seem strong to embrace ambiguity? Are you weak or strong?
- What does it mean to have a ‘weak conscience’? Does that surprise you?
- If Christianity isn’t about enforcing right views, then what is it about?
- Why is grace and relationship in Christ very different than modern tolerance?
