Jesus had come and gone. The other eyewitnesses, martyred. The church, under attack from inside and outside. On a lonely island, in his final years, the disciple Jesus loved, wrote to the people that Jesus loved about living life in the truth.

His message is one that we need today, learning to live life in light of the incredible message of the Son of God come to earth, leaning in on the true good news of the gospel.

How can we live in trust and assurance, together in community, with a Savior who loves us but is not seen? Join us for 1 John.

Mark your calendars!

On February 10th, we'll have special Sunday morning. We'll have one service at 10:00 AM. We'll have a baptism at the close of service (in the sanctuary), followed by a simple meal (pizza, salad) together.

Plan on a wonderful morning of worship and informal fellowship together!

Interested in baptism? Talk to Pastor Dax (dax@gracebellingham.org).
