Title: Love is the Greatest
Text: 1 John 3:11-24

Introduction

Loving one another is the best and highest of our actions; our own failures keep us receiving the good news that Jesus has done it all.

I. Love as Law (vv. 11-15)
Cain, hate, and murder

II. Love as Example (vv. 16-18)
Christ, love, and sacrifice

III. Love as Gift (vv. 19-24)
Confidence in Christ

“Now faith, hope and love abide, these three; But the greatest of these is love.”
(1 Corinthians 13:13)

Conclusion

- How is love what we heard from the beginning?
- How is love connected to the law?
- Do we love well? What do we do with failure?
- In what way does the Holy Spirit comfort us through life?
