

Who Are We?

John 1:17 proclaims that “grace and truth came through Jesus Christ.” Because of this, in reliance upon the Holy Spirit, we commit our lives to

Grace

- in the joyful worship of our Savior who redeems us
- in authentic, patient living because our salvation is not of us
- in grace-motivated gratitude and obedience of our Lord
- in eager sharing of the gospel by genuine love of others

& Truth

- in focusing on expository proclamation of the gospel of truth
- in desire for growth in the true knowledge of Christ
- in living out truth by being authentic in our interactions
- in personal humility without compromising biblical reality

A bare bulb is the brightest light, unadorned by shades or barriers. Sometimes we prefer covers and shades and indirection, but those things only filter rather than produce light.

At the heart of our lives is a bare and simple trust: that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God. We can talk of our love, or our overcoming, or our actions, but the only real hope we have is that his love, his overcoming, and his action saves us. He is our light.

We have naked trust in our God, that he loves us. And he will produce what he wants, by the remarkable light of his Son. If our trust is in him, we are safe and confident, because his love never fails and his promise is true.
