

Who Are We?

John 1:17 proclaims that “grace and truth came through Jesus Christ.” Because of this, in reliance upon the Holy Spirit, we commit our lives to

Grace

- in the joyful worship of our Savior who redeems us
- in authentic, patient living because our salvation is not of us
- in grace-motivated gratitude and obedience of our Lord
- in eager sharing of the gospel by genuine love of others

& Truth

- in focusing on expository proclamation of the gospel of truth
- in desire for growth in the true knowledge of Christ
- in living out truth by being authentic in our interactions
- in personal humility without compromising biblical reality

Our relationship with God is entirely based on mercy. His mercy. This mercy is very easy to see at conversion. That is when we, like the Ninevites of old, are faced with the truth that we are sinners, our deeds evil, our hope only in the mercy of God for us.

But mercy is just as central for our whole relationship with God. We transition so quickly to justice and judgment. We want mercy received to result in less mercy needed. We don't realize that we continue to receive mercy with every breath. We suffer mercy, in our need, beyond our control. Our trust is in God's mercy, revealed to us at the cross.
