

Who Are We?

John 1:17 proclaims that “grace and truth came through Jesus Christ.” Because of this, in reliance upon the Holy Spirit, we commit our lives to

Grace

- in the joyful worship of our Savior who redeems us
- in authentic, patient living because our salvation is not of us
- in grace-motivated gratitude and obedience of our Lord
- in eager sharing of the gospel by genuine love of others

& Truth

- in focusing on expository proclamation of the gospel of truth
- in desire for growth in the true knowledge of Christ
- in living out truth by being authentic in our interactions
- in personal humility without compromising biblical reality

We live in a world that labors over equality and value. We struggle with differing experiences, both good and evil. We cannot escape sin done by us and to us. In a world of increasing disparity and polarization, even Christians often seem to promote different messages and responses to societal ills.

Jonah, this ancient tale of mercy, points to the amazing, life-changing truth of the good news of a merciful God. We who are humbled to receive mercy are prepared to live a life of mercy: free, hopeful, gifted, proclaiming Jesus Christ to all those weary of the inescapable injustice of our own imperfection.
