Mark is relentless in presenting to us the servant Son of God, Jesus Christ. Relentless in action, in focus, in a single-minded purpose that we might trust in this Savior who is unstoppably for us, forever.

Today Mark presents Jesus Christ as king, the ruler of all, as he enters into Jerusalem. He is David's king, promised a reign forever. The surprise is—he arrives on a donkey. He brings a curse to fig trees. He overturns tables in the temple. Even as people cry 'hosanna,' there is something deeper and more profound occurring. This king comes lowly and humble, upsetting all of our religious ideas. He brings power and judgment, yet is outside the camp, not in it. See today the truth: our trust is in this shockingly different savior.
