Title: Counting the Cost

Text: Mark 14:1-25

Introduction

The gift of Jesus is an affront to our flesh. How will you respond?

I. The Accountant's Last Straw

Judas the affront of Jesus

II. The Passover's Real Lamb

Jesus and the gift for us

"The next day he saw Jesus coming toward him, and said, 'Behold the lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world!'" (John 1:29)

Conclusion

- What offended Judas so much about the use of the perfume?
- How might we be like Judas? What sorts of "accounting" do we do?
- Is Jesus an unwitting sacrifice? What changes if he knows all about betrayal?
- How is the Lord's supper about trust and receiving rather than commitment?
