Message: Tongue Untamed

Text: James 3:1-12

Introduction

Sticks and stones break my bones, but words never hurt... or do they?

I. One Tongue

Words are important and revealing

Really important

Really evil

Really uncontrollable

II. Two Options

Response that reveals your hope

Change

Calvary

“Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who promised is faithful.”
(Hebrews 10:23)

Conclusion

- Do you agree that the tongue is really powerful? Examples from your life?
- Is the tongue really poisonous? Why is James so strongly negative?
- What’s the command here in James? What does he want you to do?
- How does this passage reflect Law and Gospel? Why is that important?
