Title: On Marriage

Text: 1 Corinthians 7:1-16

Introduction

I. Radical Equality

Giving yourself away

II. Radical Contentment

Right where you are

III. Radical Lives

Holy presence

“The Lord your God is in your midst, a mighty one who will save; he will rejoice over you with gladness; he will quiet you by his love; he will exult over you with loud singing.”

(Zephaniah 3:17)

Conclusion

- Do you think Christianity is a force for equality? Why or why not?
- Why do you think Paul doesn't command, but rather give opinions?
- How is it radical, in Paul's cultural setting, that he commends singleness?
- How is it possible to remain in a relationship you don't fully love?
