Title: Fireside Chat

Text: John 21:1-14

Introduction

Jesus stands next to the fire, offering warmth and nourishment, but most importantly, reconciliation.

I. Illusions of Competence and Illusions of Righteousness.

II. Peter's time with the Lord, the book is open.

III. Peter is tested.

IV. Simon is reconciled to God, and so are we!

Jesus stands next to the fire, will you eat?

Conclusion

- What are 'Illusions of Competence'? Illusions of Righteousness?
- How does Peter become trapped in the illusion of his own righteousness? How do we?
- How do we respond to Jesus' mercy, despite all our failures?
- How do we move forward with our lives now that the illusions are shattered?
